

Hyundai and Kia Fuel Tank Pressure Sensor with Adapter: 1811261

It is very common that some vehicle components are changed as models are updated during production. Take notice of the color of the fuel tank pressure sensor connection plug on the Hyundai and Kia applications listed on the next page before replacing the fuel tank pressure sensor. Some models will need to use an electrical adaptor plug.

gpd fuel tank pressure sensor, 1811261, is designed with a removeable adaptor to fit all Hyundai and Kia models listed on the following page.

- Use adaptor if replacing an older model. Typically, a flat back style with yellow on the inside of the connector.
- Remove adaptor if replacing a newer model. Typically, the new model will have a square back style.
